Turn back the hands of time with this beautiful home built in 1798 reminiscent of the deep south! It's 3 stories, two of which have gorgeous wrap around newly redone porches, that you can envision with rocking chairs, sipping mint juleps or enjoying a summer meal. The 3-story farmhouse has a newly refurbished kitchen, two living rooms, 3 bedrooms, two and a half bathrooms, a cozy fireplace and hardwood floors that add to its eloquence. All of this is situated on an acre of land with .46 of an acre across the road that has a babbling brook running through it. On the back of the property sits a 2-story renovated barn, perfect for an art studio or whatever your mind imagines with plenty of storage below. More than 90% of the property is newly fenced in perfect for dogs to run! There is also a back shed for mowers and such, a "corn crib" which is a rare find in Dutchess County these days, and a large tool shed off the patio next to the main house for storage or a "he/she shed". A large portion of the lawn is flat, with outside electricity, perfect for tent parties, a gazebo or pool! This house and land are rich in local history and was a part of a large working farm back in the day known to the locals as "Woodinville".
