Perched on a serene lookout, 24 Falconer Street is a stately Victorian brimming with original details. This 3-bedroom, 1-bath home (with plumbing for a second) awaits its loving restoration. Amazing bones throughout—original wide-board floors, woodwork, moldings, high ceilings—await the next caretaker of this special property. The view of Mount Beacon beckons from the rocking chair front porch. The impressive center hall staircase is flanked by two parlors, one with a bathroom ready for an upgrade. The dining room, with wood-burning stove, and kitchen complete the main floor. Upstairs you will find 3 bedrooms, a full bath and laundry with attic walk-up. The house gets incredible light thanks to the many windows and generous lot size, so many spots to enjoy the view! Recent improvements include an upgraded electric panel, furnace and hot water heater. Step back in time with this jewel of a home and give it the polish it so deserves. Located in the east end of Beacon, within walking distance to Beacon's™ bustling Main Street, filled with galleries, cafes, shops, and the Metro-North station, the location and opportunity could not be more ideal.
