4 Bedroom, 4.00 Bathroom, 3,876 sqft

Residential on 2.13 Acres

N/A, Ossining, NY

A peaceful escape awaits at 125 Hawkes Avenue. Tucked away on two lush acres, this charming Colonial-style home in Ossining welcomes you with warmth and serenity—a perfect full-time haven or relaxing weekend retreat just outside New York City. Outdoors, the property features a picturesque duck pond in the front yard and a fully fenced, private backyard—creating a tranquil oasis ideal for relaxation or entertaining. This enclosed outdoor space ensures both privacy and peace as you take in the natural beauty surrounding you. For nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts, nearby walking trails offer endless opportunities to explore and connect with the great outdoors. Step inside to discover an interior where timeless character meets modern comfort. At the heart of the home lies the original 1913 hunting lodge, beautifully preserved with its authentic stone fireplace and rich architectural details. A complete renovation and expansive second-story addition in 2003 seamlessly blended historic charm with contemporary living, resulting in a spacious, elegant residence with lasting appeal. Boasting approximately 4,000 square feet of refined living space, this luxurious home features four generously sized bedrooms, including a flexible first-floor suite with a private en-suite bath—perfect as a primary bedroom, guest quarters, or home office. Three and a half tastefully designed bathrooms and expansive closets throughout strike the ideal balance of comfort, sophistication, and versatility. This secluded haven is more than a home—it's a lifestyle. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat or a stylish space to entertain, it offers the perfect blend of serenity and sophistication. Every detail has been thoughtfully curated to reflect a commitment to smart, elegant living.
