This meticulously cared-for home boasts great curb appeal and unfolds gracefully to feel surprisingly larger than anticipated.

Inside, pure sunlight streams from a skylit living room, bathing hardwood floors in the early morning sun through newer windows. The galley kitchen is a model of efficiency with quartz countertops and stainless steel appliances. It flows into the formal dining room, offering direct access to the side yard.

The charming primary bedroom features a cozy window seat and a sliding glass door leading to the tranquil rear yard. Practical updates include a 2022 fall new hot water heater and a 2016 new roof. The lower level offers a dedicated workshop, utilities, and laundry. Outside, the flat, fenced property is a private oasis, boasting two outbuildings (one with heat and electricity)â€”ideal for storage, studio or office. Nestled on a dead-end street, this home offers peace while being moments from a vibrant lifestyle. Dine, antique, boat, fish, swim, walk, and explore nearby nature and culture, or enjoy a short commute to Taconic State Parkway and Route 9 for Metro-North Trains to Grand Central Terminal.
