This Rye Neck home is a perfect choice for downsizers or first-time buyers seeking privacy, a patio, and a fenced backyard. Unlike a condo, it offers the freedom of your own outdoor area, including a large, gated backyard that is both pet-friendly and complemented by a sizable side yard. The primary bedroom is conveniently located on the first floor and is paired with an updated hall bathroom. The living room flows seamlessly into an eat-in kitchen, creating an inviting space for daily living. An additional bedroom on the first floor offers flexibility for guests or family. Upstairs, two more bedrooms can easily be used as home offices, accommodating different lifestyle needs. The basement houses the washer and dryer and provides ample space for exercise or a playroom, adding to the home's versatility. The lower level also includes a one-car garage for secure parking. A spacious, gated backyard and a generous side yard make this home especially attractive, offering ample room for pets and outdoor activities.
