Conveniently located within walking distance to Mamaroneck Village's restaurants, shops, and train station, this charming brick Cape Cod home underwent a significant renovation in 2017. The first floor features a spacious open floor plan, including a large family room, an elegant living room with an original wood-burning fireplace, a dining area, and an updated kitchen that opens onto a private patio surrounded by mature landscaping. Also on the main level is a generously-sized bedroom with a large closet, as well as a fully renovated hall bathroom, an ideal setup for guests or as a main-floor retreat. Upstairs, the primary suite offers ample storage, an ensuite new bathroom, and two additional bedrooms with a revamped hall bath, plus a convenient laundry closet. The lower level adds an extra 718 square feet of versatile bonus space, not included in the total square footage, perfect for a gym, a playroom or an additional recreational space. Just steps away from Florence Park, offering two tennis courts, a basketball court, a playground, and a 1/3 mile jogging path, all within a peaceful, park-like setting, this home perfectly combines suburban tranquility with urban convenience, making it an ideal choice for those seeking the best of both worlds.
